

Mon, Feb 22 – 24 Roma

THE RELIGIOUS AND MIGRATION IN THE 21ST CENTURY

By: Passionists International, Congregations of St Joseph; Augustinians International and Congregation of the Mission (Vincentians)

FEAR

The fear of the migrants and refugees arriving in Western Countries

The fear of the people working for the assistance of refugees

We can not be tired and discouraged in the face of so many problems

We were and we are part of the problem; today we must be part of the resolution of the problem

What can we do?

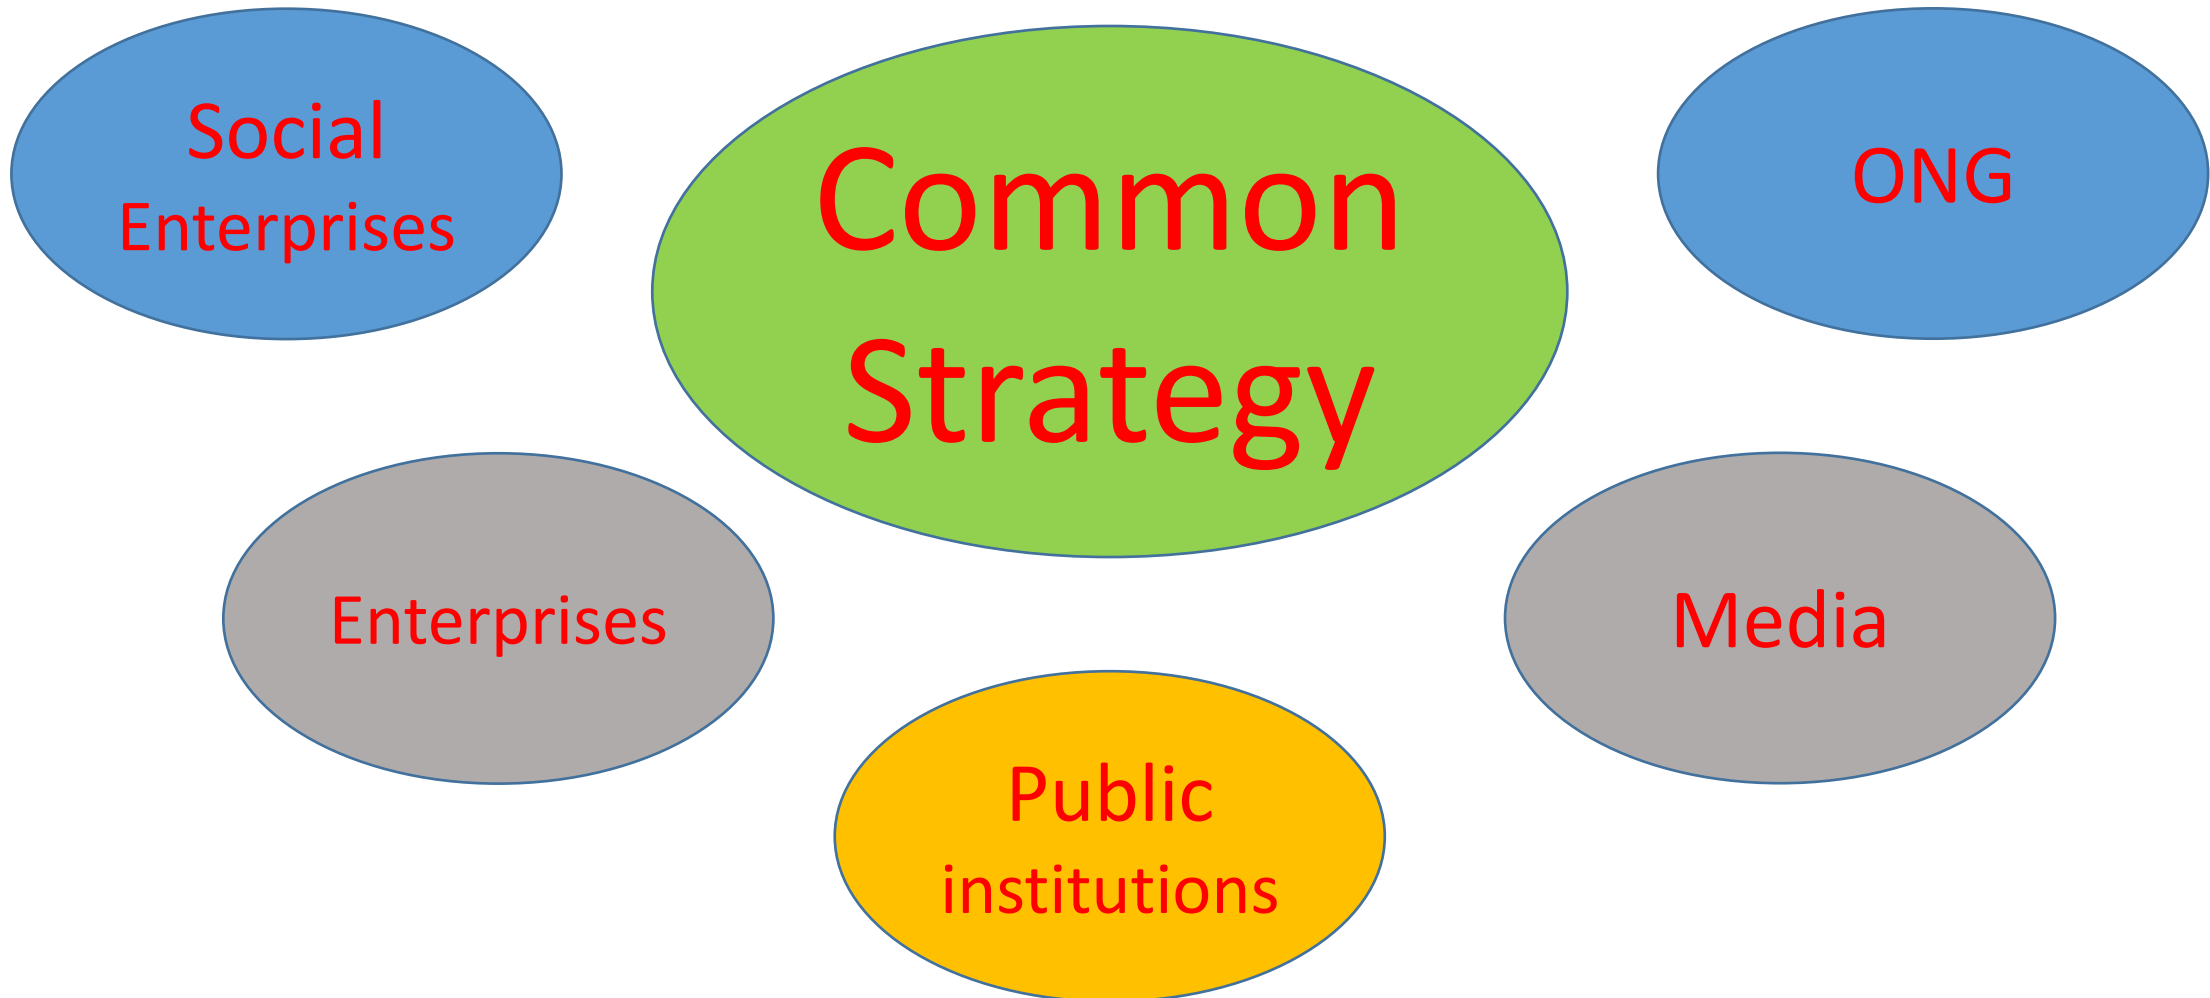

How can we improve our effectiveness to confront a phenomenon which will cause a cultural revolution?

Alone

We can not do anythink more

Create network to bring men and women religious together

The good will
it is not enough

Training

Good skill

Needs
Assessment

Improve the impact of our action

Advocacy and Lobbying

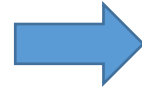

National

Ask for a clear legislation

Ask for a clear responsibility

Simplify bureaucracy

Europa

Share the responsibility

Change the Dublin Regulation

Solidarity approach

Mondiale

The human rights is the core

Analysing the migration phenomenon

Common strategy

The migration does not finish with the emergency but it is a normal phenomenon

The migration should be considered as an opportunity and not a problem

Our Proposal

Work together to confront the causes of migration

Hospitality and first Aid

Integration

ONG

Migrants' NGO

LGA

Religious Communities

Association

Lay people involvement

Training center

Cultural Mediators

Enterprises

Coinvolgimento Politica

Love and do what you want

Thank you